To Whom It May Concern:

I am pleased to recommend Ken Belva as a speaker. Ken presented at American Banker's 12th Annual Financial Services Technology Forum, on October 25 in Pasadena, California. He made an excellent presentation on Virtual Trust: How to Generate Revenue Using Information Security. Ken's presentation was expertly tailored to our audience of banks, financial institutions and technology providers.

In addition to great content, Ken brings a background of deep experience to his efforts. His dynamic personality and presentation skills added another strong dimension to our conference. I would highly recommend Ken as an industry expert speaker.
